

General Information on Appointments to Clinical Teaching Posts

The general information provided below is purely for reference purpose and is subject to amendment by the University from time to time, and is NOT part of any agreement of service. Further enquiries may be directed to the Director of Human Resources of the University.

FOR GENERAL REFERENCE ONLY

Appointment

Appointments are normally made on fixed-term contract basis initially for up to three years, which may be extended or renewed subject to mutual agreement.

Upon completion of contract service normally for not more than six years, consideration may be given for continuation of service on regular terms.

College Affiliation

All members of teaching staff will be affiliated to one of the Colleges of the University, e.g. Chung Chi College, New Asia College, United College, Shaw College, Morningside College, S.H. Ho College, CW Chu College, Wu Yee Sun College, and Lee Woo Sing College.

Appointment Level and Salary

The University adopts a three-level appointment system for clinical professoriate staff, namely, Assistant Professor, Associate Professor, and Professor. The salary ranges applicable to the respective appointment levels are as follows:-

Appointment Level	Salary per month (HK$) (w.e.f. July 1, 2024)
Professor	158,415 – 256,985 or above (in 3 pay bands)
Associate Professor	106,155 – 158,415
Assistant Professor	83,150 – 137,085

Commencing salaries will be commensurate with qualifications and experience.

[Approximate exchange rate: US$1 = HK$7.8; GBP1 = HK$10.1; EUR1 = HK$8.6; AU$1 = HK$5.2 (as of August 2024)]

Cash Allowances#

In addition to the monthly basic salary, an appointee may receive a monthly fixed-sum cash allowance and a housing subsidy, subject to fulfillment of the relevant University regulations including the rules for the prevention of double housing benefits.

- (a) The rates of the monthly fixed-sum cash allowance, set as a fixed sum at each salary point, will be determined by the University from time to time. The current rates payable to the respective salary scales are:

Appointment Level	Monthly fixed-sum cash allowance (HK$ per month)
Professor	35,544 - 63,984
Associate Professor	18,857 - 35,544
Assistant Professor	14,451 - 33,119

[Approximate exchange rate: US$1 = HK$7.8; GBP1 = HK$10.1; EUR1 = HK$8.6; AU$1 = HK$5.2(as of August 2024)]

- (b) The housing subsidy will be payable in the form of an additional cash allowance at 5% of the actual monthly basic salary or 5% of the maximum point of the relevant equivalent salary scale of the Hospital Authority of Hong Kong, whichever is the less.

In-service Pay Review

The in-service pay review is a common review exercise for basic salary adjustment under the Salary Administration System for Teaching Staff where a teaching appointee will be reviewed with reference to his/her performance including teaching, research and service as appropriate, and if so recommended and approved by the University, be awarded increment(s). The review will generally be conducted annually.

Retirement

The normal retirement age for new recruits joining the University on or after January 1, 2016 is extended to 65, with implementation details to be worked out in due course.

Retirement Scheme and Contract-end Gratuity

Depending on the duration of the fixed-term contract and where applicable, an appointee will be entitled to the University's employer contribution made into his/her retirement scheme account on a monthly basis plus a contract-end gratuity totaling up to an equivalent amount of 15% of basic salary.

Leave

Annual Leave

An appointee is entitled to annual leave in the following order:

Years of University Service	Annual Leave (in working days) for each Calendar Year
Less than 10 Years	21
10 Years or more	28

Maternity Leave

Full-time female appointees who have been in the University's continuous employ for forty weeks or more immediately prior to the commencement of maternity leave will be entitled to fourteen weeks of fully paid maternity leave.

Other Leave

Study leave, conference leave and special leave may be granted at the discretion of the University.

Benefits

Benefits-Eligibility of Staff and Dependent Family

The University provides benefits to eligible appointees (as per the terms of employment) and their dependent family resident in Hong Kong, which generally cover the spouse (including a partner that has been accorded benefits-eligibility upon application) and dependent children aged under 21.

Medical Care

Under the University's Staff Medical Benefits Scheme 1999, general out-patient medical care is provided to an appointee on fixed-term contract. Depending on the duration of the contract, an appointee may also be provided with specialist outpatient care, dental care and hospital benefits. An appointee on fixed-term contract(s) of an aggregate of three years or longer will also be provided with maternity benefits.

The above medical benefits will where applicable cover an appointee's dependent family above-mentioned as well.

Outside Practice

An appointee who wishes to engage in outside practice or consultancy will have to obtain prior approval from the University.

Salary Tax

Salary tax in Hong Kong is chargeable on the smaller of

- a) the net chargeable income at progressive rates; or
- b) the net income at standard rate with the tax payable capped at an amount calculated at standard rate on the net income (15% from 2011-12 onward).

Details can be found from the website of the Inland Revenue Department: <http://www.ird.gov.hk/>

Termination of Appointment#

Termination of appointment may be made by either party by giving to the other party four months' notice in writing or payment in lieu of notice equivalent to four months' wages and cash allowances. If the appointee is the holder of a designated office or a Chairman of Department or a Head of Unit, six months' notice or payment in lieu of notice equivalent to six months' wages and cash allowances is required.

A new appointee is required to have served for at least six months or to make a payment (basic salary and cash allowances) in lieu of any shortfall in the required period of service if such a minimum period of service is not yet served when resignation takes effect.
